Karen & Peter Leipsic Scholarship in Support of Women & Children Who are Victims of Domestic Violence

Introduction by Al Benarroch

Every year, thousands of women across Canada experience intimate partner violence. The Karen & Peter Leipsic Scholarship is designed to help women and their families build a new life beyond domestic violence.

This year, three individuals are being awarded these scholarships. All are women rebuilding their family life free of violence, coercion, and psychological control. These funds allow them to care for themselves and their children while working toward a more financially secure future.

Thank you to Karen and Peter Leipsic for their generous support in establishing this fund at the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba. Each year, the proceeds from their fund helps support this scholarship and other programming at JCFS related to Domestic Violence.

The Katz Family-Kay Four Properties Scholarship

Investing in Children in Care

Thank you to Sam and Joanne Katz for their generous support of our young adults, as they grow and plan for their futures. These scholarships allow our youth to pave their futures through education, study, and learning skilled trades. Knowing that there is someone in their corner helps lay a foundation for them to spread their wings to reach their potential with security and confidence.

Awarded to:

Chantelle Chernick - Psychology & Anthropology

Jessica Finkel - Education

Malibu Elliott - Aesthetics

Julia Ciupak - Aesthetics

THANK YOU

Guest Speaker |

Rabbi Joseph Shamash

Spiritual Counselor and Manager of the Elaine Breslow Institute

Beit T'Shuvah, Los Angeles

Rabbi Joseph Shamash is a Jewish Persian Cowboy. Born in Dallas, Texas to Iranian immigrants, Joseph currently serves as a Spiritual Counselor and the Manager of the Elaine Breslow Institute at Beit T'Shuvah in Los Angeles, CA, a full-time Jewish residential treatment facility that fuses Jewish spirituality with the 12-steps, to help addicts in recovery live better lives. He is a trained Sofer (Jewish Scribe), an award-winning filmmaker and avid meditator. Joseph lives in Los Angeles with his wife, Allie Peha Shamash, and their two wonderful children Benjamin and Lucy.
