

Counsellor (Casual, Contract)

Position Overview

Jewish Child and Family Service (JCFS) is a Winnipeg-based, multifaceted, non-profit social service agency established to provide services and supports that assist individuals, couples, and families across the life-span.

JCFS is seeking a Counsellor to provide direct clinical counselling services to individuals, and/or families in need of counselling/therapy to address a variety of concerns such as: depression, anxiety, interpersonal skills, workplace challenges, relationship issues, stress management, addictions, etc.

The successful candidate will have:

- Excellent clinical counselling skills
- Good knowledge of community resources
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
- Experience working with individuals or couples
- Can work independently and develop and sustain relationships with a broad range of clients
- Experience working with children/play therapy an asset

Qualifications and Requirements:

- Master's Degree in Social Work, Counselling Psychology, or Marriage and Family Therapy
- Certification with a recognized counselling association in Canada
- Carry your own Liability Insurance
- Five years post-graduate counselling experience
- Adherence to professional standards and best practices
- Engage in clinical consultation with the clinical supervisor, as required
- Flexible availability both daytime and evenings

Please submit resume and cover letter to:

Al Benarroch
Executive Director
Jewish Child and Family Service
abenarroch@jcfswinnipeg.org

Thank you to all applicants, however, only those selected for an interview will be contacted.