JEWISH CHILD AND FAMILY SERVICE
Strengthening lives in keeping with Jewish values

JCFS acknowledges Jewish Child and Family Service is located on original lands of Anishinaabe, Cree, Oji-Cree, Dakota, and Dene peoples, and on the homeland of the Métis Nation.

We respect the Treaties that were made on these territories and acknowledge the harms and mistakes of the past. We dedicate ourselves to move forward in partnership with Indigenous communities in a spirit of truth, reconciliation, and collaboration.

Annual Scholarship Awards |

Karen & Peter Leipsic Scholarship in Support of Women & Children Who are Victims of Intimate Partner Violence

Introduction by Al Benarroch

Every year, thousands of women across Canada experience intimate partner violence. The Jewish community is not immune. The Karen & Peter Leipsic Scholarship is designed to empower these women and their children to build a new life free of intimate partner violence.

This year, one individual is being acknowledged and supported. With the support of JCFS and the Leipsics, she can continue to build a life free of violence, coercion, and psychological control. These funds empower women to care for themselves and their children while healing emotionally and working toward more financial security and independence.

Thank you to Karen and Peter Leipsic for their generous annual support by establishing this fund at the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba. Each year, the proceeds from their fund also helps JCFS deliver intimate partner violence services.

The Katz Family-Kay Four Properties Scholarship

Investing in the Future of Children in Care

Thank you to Sam and Joanne Katz for their generous annual support of our young adults, as they leave foster care and plan for their futures. These scholarships empower our youth to pave their futures through university/college education or skilled trades. Knowing that there is someone in their corner lays a foundation for their motivation to spread their wings and reach their potential with security and confidence.

Awarded to:
